

War

Twelve Foot Ninja

End the war!
You're not invulnerable
And you will no longer silence us.
We march as one!
We are unstoppable
And we will fight till we need no more.

An eye for an eye
Makes the whole world blind.

End the war!
You're not invulnerable
And you will no longer silence us.
We march as one!
We are unstoppable
And we will fight till we need no more.

We will reclaim our freedom
And there is no way they can stop us
The prize that we're looking for
Is that open door
That leads us to ourselves

Until the circle ends
We will not give in
We will not retreat
We will rise!

You won't stop us
No!
You won't stop us
Nooo!
You're done

End the war!
You're not invulnerable
And you will no longer silence us.
We march as one!
We are unstoppable
And we will fight till we need no more.

We will reclaim our freedom
And there is no way they can stop us
The prize that we're looking for
Is that open door
That leads us to ourselves

Until the circle ends
We will not give in
We will not retreat
We will rise!
Until the circle ends
We will not give in
We will not retreat
We will RIIIIISSEE!
