Like Flames

Twenty 4 Seven

Something you've heard Somewhere you've seen Too real to ignore You've chosen not to believe

From the black of their pain To the white of their fear In the dust they die While eden lies near

The freedom bought, Changed hands, was sold This heat of love has turned ice-cold

Na na na na, na na na na We just can't escape it Na na na na, na na na na Like flames reaching out from the sun Na na na na, na na na na We just can't defeat it Na na na na, na na na na Like flames reaching out from the sun

From the garden of love, Been banished too long And the balance will shift Between the week and the strong

Once they would beg and they would plead But now they demand Divided by those that need And those that command

The freedom bought, Changed hands, was sold The heat of love has turned ice-cold and We never learn but we know too well Heaven's died and gone to hell

Na na na na, na na na na Like flames reaching out from the sun Na na na na, na na na na We just can't escape it Na na na na, na na na na Like flames reaching out from the sun Na na na na, na na na na We just can't defeat it Na na na na, na na na na Like flames reaching out from the sun
