Friend, Please

Twenty One Pilots

I feel for you but when did you Believe you were alone? You say that spiders crawled inside And made themselves a home Where light once was.

Petrified of who you are and Who you have become. You will hide from everyone, Denying you need someone To exterminate your bones.

Friend, please remove your hands from Over your eyes for me. I know you want to leave but Friend, please don't take your life away from me.

Living like a ghost you walk By everyone you know. You say that you're fine but You have lost your sway a glow. So I stopped by to let you know.

Friend, please remove your hands from Over your eyes for me. I know you want to leave but Friend, please don't take your life away from me.

Would you let me know your plans tonight? 'Cause I just won't let go till we both see the light. And I have nothing else left to say. But I will listen to you all day. Yes I will.

Friend, please remove your hands from Over your eyes for me. I know you want to leave but Friend, please don't take your life away from me.
