

When The Movie's Over

Twin Shadow

You and I appear awake
Even in the summer days
You hang on to the things I say
But you couldn't see what's in my head

You come alone, I'll be down
Like a nightmare, like a nightmare
You come alone, I'll be down
Not the first one, not the last one

To do it all again, to do it all again
Do it all again, do it all again
I'll cry, I'll cry, when the movie's over
I'll cry, I'll cry

I don't mind for you favorite things
In the catalog of your memories
You hang on to the falling leaves
Like the leaves themselves you were born to claim

You come alone, I'll be down
This time you're wasting, this time we're wasting
You come alone, I'll be down
Like a nightmare, like a nightmare

To do it all again, to do it all again
Do it all again, do it all again
I'll cry, I'll cry, when the movie's over
I'll cry, I'll cry
I'll cry, I'll cry, when the movie's over
I'll cry, I'll cry
