

Hide This Feeling

Twinspirits

Sometimes it's so strange what people think;
it seems they just can't see beyond their needs.
All seems to be so clear into their minds,
living their perfect plans,
they're stuck in their inner worlds.

How can we hide this feeling?
How can we keep on dreaming?
How can we hide this feeling now?
We just can't.

Sometimes I feel lost, I feel so confused,
but still I can spot that light
deep in your eyes.
I know the day will come when you'll leave your small inner world.

We may come from different tracks
and we may have different plans,
but just tell me why can't we
be brothers and sisters, please?
But just tell me why can't we love each other?

How can we hide this feeling?
How can we keep on dreaming?
How can we hide this feeling now?
We just can't.
How can we hide this feeling?
We should be brothers and sisters.
How can we hide this feeling now?
We just can't.
Hold my hand, walk with me, till the end...
