

One Of Us

Twinspirits

He's coming from outside our world, he might be strange, we just don't know. You shouldn't trust his words, just get the best he has to give. Don't be deceived and never give him your esteem.

You've got to be afraid of him, always. Don't care for him, just keep running straight ahead. You've got to keep away from him, always. Don't let his sway lead you astray, he comes from a foreign world.

Never give your trust 'cause he's not one of us. Never show yourself 'cause he's not one of us.

We'll always lend a helping hand, hiding dismay, defending you though, you know we hold the truth. You must arise, capitalize, make all your moves, go for the prize, realize your dream.

You've got to be afraid of him, always. Don't care for him, just keep running straight ahead. You've got to keep away from him, always. Don't let his sway lead you astray, he comes from a foreign world.

Never give your trust 'cause he's not one of us. Never show yourself 'cause he's not one of us.

Evil counterpart, not everyone can give you love and take you away from a bad world where anyone can feed your soul.

Just keep in mind my words: he's not one of us. Just keep in mind my words: he's not one of us.

Never give your trust 'cause he's not one of us. Never give your trust 'cause he's not one of us. One of us... he is not one of us, no he's not.
