

I've still a whole life ahead of me,
but I have lost all my desires.
I knew this dream would come to an end, to an end...

No, I never thought life could be so hard.
Sun is shining bright, but not for me,
not for me...

Day by day, discovering how it feels,
losing faith in your humanity.
But I still preserve my self-esteem,
my self esteem.

No! I never thought
life could be so hard,
and I'm about to fall.
Yeah! I'm about to fall,
I know that this life is going to be...

Senseless, everything's senseless.
I've tried so hard to learn,
I don't understand this game -
it makes no sense! No sense!
It makes no sense! No sense!

I remember how things used to be:
the warm feel of a sweet embrace for me.
Love has given us its best and then it just disappeared.

Day by day I wonder how you feel,
losing faith in your humanity.
Have you still preserved your self-esteem,
your self-esteem?

No! I never thought you could be so proud to not admit your faults and destroy our world.
I know that this life is going to be...

Senseless, everything's senseless.
I've tried so hard to learn,
I don't understand this game -
it makes no sense!

It's time to make a change,
It's time to leave my past.
I need to run straight ahead,
but how can I find a new force
to renew my life?

Senseless, everything's senseless,
and I've tried so hard to learn,
I don't understand this game -
it makes no sense! No sense!
No sense!
