

The Endless Sleep - Legacy

Twinspirits

Change! Everything's going to change! Blame! Someone is going to blame me!

My soul is being called, a new meaning have been told.

Pain is growing day by day, faith is rising inside of me. Old secrets start to unfold, a new aim my soul has found!

Son! Listen to your heartbeat, spread to the world my legacy. Son! That's your real identity, spread to the entire world my legacy.

Crime is ruling night and day, lies covering the real danger. I'll go through all the faults, a new day for me is now born!

Son! Listen to your heartbeat, spread to the world my legacy. Son! That's your real identity, spread to the entire world my legacy.

Salvation of the entire world is in your hands. You'll have to crucify your soul: it's up to you! You'll have to spread my legacy!

Salvation of the entire world is in your hands. You'll have to crucify your soul: it's up to you!

Son! Listen to your heartbeat, spread to the world my legacy. Son! That's your real identity, spread to the entire world my legacy.

Spread my legacy...
