

The Endless Sleep - Tell Me The Truth

Twinspirits

(Dad?) Tell me the truth, you know I need an answer. Tell me the truth, once for all. Tell me the truth, I know there must be an answer. You've chosen me, but tell me why?

I need you! I just can't wait anymore. I need you! Help me to unfold all my doubts.

Tell me the truth, why did you take my life away? Tell me the truth, what's your aim? I know it's love, I know it's all about love. You've chosen me, but tell me why?

I need you! I just can't wait anymore. I need you! Help me to unfold all my doubts.

It's just for you, all the journeys I've done. It's just for you, the challenges that I've won. It's just for you mysteries that I have solved, it's just for you!

I beg you, my tired soul needs to be healed. I beg you, oh please! Why don't you tell me?

Tell me the truth, you know I need an answer. Tell me the truth, once for all. Tell me the truth, I know there must be an answer. You've chosen me, but tell me why?

I beg you, my tired soul needs to be healed. I beg you, oh please! Why don't you tell me?
