The Endless Sleep - Tell Me The Truth

Twinspirits

(Dad?) Tell me the truth, you know I need an answer. Tell me th e truth, once for all. Tell me the truth, I know there must be an answer. You've chosen me, but tell me why?

I need you! I just can't wait anymore. I need you! Help me to u nfold all my doubts.

Tell me the truth, why did you take my life away? Tell me the truth, what's your aim? I know it's love, I know it's all about love. You've chosen me, but tell me why?

I need you! I just can't wait anymore. I need you! Help me to u nfold all my doubts.

It's just for you, all the journeys I've done. It's just for you, the challenges that I've won. It's just for you mysteries that I have solved, it's just for you!

I beg you, my tired soul needs to be healed. I beg you, oh plea se! Why don't you tell me?

Tell me the truth, you know I need an answer. Tell me the truth, once for all. Tell me the truth, I know there must be an answer. You've chosen me, but tell me why?

I beg you, my tired soul needs to be healed. I beg you, oh plea se! Why don't you tell me?
