

Come Back

Twisted Sister

One, two, three, four

Well, after all the times we met, you said I never was your man
And though I tried hard to forget, I never quite could understand

And when I finally realize all the things you meant to me
You were gone away, leaving everything to me
So would you come back, would you come back to me

So would you come back, would you come back to me
So would you come back, you mean everything to me
Walkin' back the games we played, opening up those unlocked doors

And if I had it all again, I'd do it all again for free
Remembering all the love we made, always wanted to make more

'Cause now you've gone away, now there's nothing left for me
So would you come back, would you come back to me
So would you come back, you mean everything to me
So would you come back, would you come back to me

Now I'm the one, you didn't care but only lied, so here I stand
You stupid fool, look what you've done, now I'm alone
And now I'm cryin', oh come back, come back to me

Come back, come, come back to me, oh yeah
And as the hours turn to years, I sit here thinking of the days
I wish to wipe away the tears and all the things I want to say
And as I finally dry my eyes and as I turn to walk away
I took my head up to the sky, fell then upon my knees and pray

So would you come back, would you come back to me
So would you come back, you mean everything to me
So would you come back, so would you come back to me

Would you come back, would you come back to me
So would you come back, so would you come back to me, yeah

So would you come back, you mean everything to me, yeah
Oh, would you come back, would you, would you come back to me
Oh, na na na, oh, na na na, yeah
Oh, would you come back, would you, would you come back to... me, yeah
