

Destroyer

Twisted Sister

He spent his life a silent sentinel for all to fear
He walks, he talks, he thinks, he feels but no dare go near
He takes in all he sees, nothing escapes his gaze
And when he strikes, he strikes for right, a glorious sight

Destroyer, destroyer
Destroyer, he's in town

He came to be from a grand mistake, a mystical charade
Created to decide the good and bring repercussive aid
As awareness filled his fame and he examined those who leered
And he cleaved the air with his fiery stare rend all those there

Destroyer, destroyer
Destroyer, he's in town

A day will come you'll be drawn into the center of your town
And come upon a mass of steel that cracks the very ground
Prepare to meet your judge, don't think to run away
Just pray your face holds no disgrace for the deadly ace

Destroyer, destroyer
Destroyer, he's in

Destroyer, destroyer
Destroyer, he's in town

Oh, he's in town
You'd better stay out of his fucking way
He's gonna kick your ass
Yeah, destroyer
