

U Don't Wanna B Like Me

Twiztid

(You dont wanna be like me)
I can walk on water and freeze it on step one
And then I'll stick my finger in it and melt it like it was hot sun

Well I can turn your adam's apple into apple juice
Start to strangle mothafuckas till their face turn blue

I can be the world's greatest serial killer of all time
And I'll end your fucking life at the drop of a dime

I can float above the clouds, way up in the sky
And it's my choice if I live or die

Or I can be the strange pizza man that always knocks twice
And when you open up your door I give your mothafucking neck a slice

I can take a million dollars and just throw it away
Cause it'll never replace a single ounce of my sanity

I can be the last angel standing on top of the hill
Or the green demon waiting on your window sill

And I can become an icon for the oppressed
Cause their hearts still beating in their unforgiven chest

You Don't wanna be like (Me)
Don't wanna be like
You Don't Wanna be like (Me)
Don't wanna be like
And this is the mind of a serial killa

I can buy a shotgun from Target with attempts to set it off
I can load that bitch in the parking lot and shoot that shit off

And I can be the book of the dead, a vampire or a demon
But either way your fucked, cause when I leave your not breathing

Well I can part the sea with the wand of a wizard
And turn a hot day into a windy blizzard

I can be an axe in the backs of people who wanna trash talk
And leave your body slaughtered all over your momma's sidewalk

I can disappear into the air like a phantom in the night
And I can die if I'm exposed to excessive sunlight

And I can show you how to dig a bitches grave in less then 20 seconds
And I'll shove that bitch in there and let her family get to guessing

I can grab you out of your world and show you horrible things
And I can show you the terror that curiosity brings

And I can be the last straw, that puts you over the edge
And leaves eleven at your work place dead

You Don't wanna be like (Me)
Don't wanna be like

You Don't Wanna be like (Me)
Don't wanna be like
And this is the mind of a serial killa

You
Me
You
And this is the mind of a serial killa
You
Me
You
And this is the mind...
