Cigarettes in the Theatre

Two Door Cinema Club

It starts in the theatre A night of encounters If I hadn't been there If not for a cigarette

And you could see it change Look past the blinding light Look past the blinding light

Just keep talking on Tell me your favourite things Tell me your favourite things

Difference in opinion was never an issue Collect all your questions Because this time we've all night

And you could see it change Look past the blinding light Look past the blinding light

Just keep talking on Tell me your favourite things Tell me your favourite things

Just keep talking on Tell me your favourite things Tell me your favourite things
