

Learn to fly,
Learn to fly,
Show the world
How you try.

But don't let go
Until you know,
Until you know
Me.

'Cause I can see,
I can see
All the things
Arresting me.
But I control,
I control.

When I get home,
When I get home,
I want to feel less alone.
I couldn't feel,
I couldn't feel
Anybody.

This isn't home,
This isn't home,
I couldn't feel more alone.
I need to feel,
I need to feel
Somebody.

'Cause I see the world
In different colours
To someone like you.

This day, we'll all pull you in
Romantic and drenched in sin.
But you only have an amount of time
Until this place
Will swallow you whole.

And everything I cannot imagine.
This dim-lit room has seen much before me.
And I don't want
To ever know,
To know.

The city will pull you in
Romantic and drenched in sin
But you only have an amount of time
Until this place
Will swallow you whole.
