

Come On

Two Tongues

We're in your bed
We're on the floor
Sold my soul for just one more
I reach to touch
Your broken hips
I pull you in close as I kiss

Come on, come on
Get up, get up, get up
I won't let you down again
Come on, come on
Get up, get up, get up
I won't let you down again

You make me pay every time
Is this love an endless crime?
I feel you here deep inside
You make me feel alive

Come on, come on
Get up, get up, get up
I won't let you down again
Come on, come on
Get up, get up, get up
I won't let you down again

Love, love, love...
Again, again, again...

Come on, come on
Get up, get up, get up
I won't let you down again
Come on, come on
Get up, get up, get up
I won't let you down again
