

In the dark winter nights
I'm afraid
Need the tears to come
Just like a child needs light at nights
Seeing nightmares
With open eyes
And I feel so helpless
Like a child
Left alone at a huge airport
When he's lost his mother

Who wants to be a little child
Who wants to be alone again
Child- so innocent
Child- so helpless
Child- so cute
Child- so alone

Today I want to fly
To be a child again
To be afraid of strangers
To be too scared to sleep
And I throw dust all over me
And I try to hide
In this dark room
In this quiet bed

Who wants to be a little child
Who wants to be alone again
Child- so innocent
Child- so helpless
Child- so cute
Child- so alone
