

Heart Half Empty

Ty Herndon

There's some left over wine the cupboard
About a half a glass left for the road
Here's a toast to the time we were lovers-then I'll go
Should I laugh, or should I cry?
Love you, hate you, live or die?

CHORUS

Is my heart half full or half empty?
Is our love like the wine in this glass
You drink like there's no tomorrow
So sure, it would always last
Will the memories taste sweet as they linger
Or the bitterness stay on my tongue
Is my heart half full of the love you gave me
Or my heart half empty cuz your love is gone
Your bags are all packed in the hallway
The boxes are stacked on the lawn
You kissed me goodbye just like always
And you're gone
Trembling hands or nerves of steel
Someone tell me what to feel
