

The Only Way I Know

Ty Herndon

In a world where love is found and lost so easily
I'm so thankful I share my life with you
All around you hear the sound of faithless poetry
Oh I won't lie, that's something I won't do

There must be a million words to whisper soft and low
There must be a million ways, I could let my feelings show
But loving you with all my heart and never letting go
That's the only way, the only way I know

Maybe I will never say everything I feel
Even so, you'll always know the truth
And in the silence of a touch every word is real
As long as I live that's what I give to you

There must be a million words to whisper soft and low
There must be a million ways, I could let my feelings show
But loving you with all my heart and never letting go
That's the only way, the only way I know
Oh, that's the only way, the only way I know

That's the only way
That's the only way, the only way I know
That's the only way
That's the only way, the only way I know
