You can say
I didn't give you my all
Built from ground up
Just to watch us fall
Now I'm moving
Moving on today

Don't need someone
To help me scape
From this sleep
I can't seem to wake
I can take me, take me away
Take me away

Just breathe tonight
Now that I can fly
I am going up, up, up
I'm not coming down, down, down
I feel light

I was lost, I
You could say I was weak
In a loud room
No one hears me scream
Suffocating
From your hands on my face

Now I know I've
Made mistakes from the past
Take for granted
Time can pass so fast
But I found me
Found me here in this place

I may have lost my way
But now that I am found
There is no limit
I can't reach
I have left the ground

Just breathe tonight
Now that I can fly
I'm going up, up, up
I'm not coming down, down, down
I feel light

Just breathe tonight
Now that I can fly
I'm going up, up, up
I'm not coming down, down, down
I feel light
