

Do It All

Tyga

Looking at the ceiling thinking why I treat you bad
Nevermind, rewind
Looking at the ceiling thinking why
Ain't no worse a feeling than knowing I did it for the last
I always thought "play dumb"
And let the other one love
Only love for fun
I'm too young, I thought
Heaven knows you deserve it all
The Bible says before you run, you gotta learn to crawl
Aw Aww
We been through it all
I know I broke your heart once before
But I'm done
Aw aww awww
Tell me what's wrong
I know I never listen but just listen to this song
Aww man
I promise we gon do it til the sun come down
I swear it's going down
I promise we gon do it til the sun come out
Fuck it they don't do it, we gon do it all
