Do It All

Looking at the ceiling thinking why I treat you bad Nevermind, rewind Looking at the ceiling thinking why Ain't no worse a feeling than knowing I did it for the last I always thought "play dumb" And let the other one love Only love for fun I'm too young, I thought Heaven knows you deserve it all The Bible says before you run, you gotta learn to crawl Aw Aww We been through it all I know I broke your heart once before But I'm done Aw aww awww Tell me what's wrong I know I never listen but just listen to this song Aww man I promise we gon do it til the sun come down I swear it's going down I promise we gon do it til the sun come out Fuck it they don't do it, we gon do it all
