Far Away

Just to see her (see her) But she's far far away And I'd do anything just to see her face But she's far far away Walk a thousand miles just to see her smile again Sittin' on a plane Reminiscing back when I made that mistake I wish it never ended with a heartbreak Now your heart broken, tears in ya face Ask myself why, looking at the sky If I could turn back I'd make it all right Praying that you better but its still stormy weather Don't wanna let go but the rain wont let up Now you gone, still thinking bout you everyday And I know feelings was hurt and you can blame me but I'm sorry for the games that I played But now it's too late And now she's' Now she's far far away And I'd do anything just to see her face But she's far far away Walk a thousand miles just to see her smile again It's cold putting up a fight Arguing back and forth through the night Regardless what I said and I don't most of it You know I really love you, this the realest goin' get It take time to realise what you really wanna know You was ready for it all but your feelings I ignored I know my fault, I should've gave more Now you're miles away and I'm miles on tour Now it's drums playing, crowd singing Light changing, wish you was here to witness all that It starts fading They say two wrongs don't make it right And I was wrong and now it aint right 'Cause she's far far away And I'd do anything just to see her face But she's far far away Walk a thousand miles just to see her smile again Na na na nah If I could turn back If I could make it right I'd do just that If I could make it right I'd do it all tonight Hold you in my arms, with you I'd spend my life Na na na nah If I could turn back If I could make it right I'd do just that I'd do just that If I could turn back (Come back here again) 'Cause she's far far away And I'd do anything just to see her face But she's far far away Walk a thousand miles just to see her smile again www.srovnavac.cz-šetříme na pojištění!
