

Burning Desire

Tygers of Pan Tang

As the sun goes down
As the leaves turn to brown
Stop dragging my heart around
RELEASE ME

Nothing ever changed
This life I can't rearrange
Feeling's still the same
I'm no longer with you

A never ending pain
Is all that remains
I walk a dead end street
I pray you come back to me

STEP INTO THE FIRE - OF A BURNING DESIRE

The night is my only friend
I'm chasing shadows again
Is your face I see
I hear you laughing at me

Now there's no turning back
Say goodbye to the past
Let the rain wash away my tears
And carry away all my fears

As the sun goes down
As the leaves turn to brown
Stop dragging my heart around
