Dark Rider

Tygers of Pan Tang

On a quest - on a ride Through the darkness of the night Out for something hard to find A secret jewel hidden in someone's mind

In the woods youwill find - a shining secret lights up the sky

Dark Rider - burning wheels of fire Kickstart your heart, feel your engine reviving higher Dark Rider - like a demon screaming by You gotta ride to live, ya gotta live to ride

As the full moon shines Hear the winds whispers in the wild Holy silence, Devil's delight He's on the streets somewhere outside

If you dare to high - His laugh will blow your mind
