

Do It Good

Tygers of Pan Tang

Got to get, what you want,
And when you do, do it good.
Ain't no crime, to enjoy yourself,
'Cause when you're old, you'll regret it if you don't.

Do you speak up? Do you dare?
Do you think? So do it good, do it good.
Do you count the days? Is there more to you?
Than meets the eye, do it good, do it good.

Is there more to you than you can say?
Have you got pride? So let it shine,
Don't let other people live your life,
Don't sacrifice, just do it good, do it good.

There ain't no golden rule, you make your own,
Try to break through, to something new,
Then go for it no matter what it is,

Do you speak up? Do you dare?
Do you think? So do it good, do it good.
Do you count the days? Is there more to you?
Than meets the eye, do it good, do it good.

Life's too short to worry about, so do it good,
Don't hide behind a mask, get yourself together,
Do it good, do it good
