

Don't Stop By

Tygers of Pan Tang

Shadows in an empty house
Ain't no relief in tears,
Been days since you left
Seems like years
I can't stand loneliness
The radio sings my song
I cannot accept
That you're really gone

Don't stop by, she's not at home
Don't stop by, I'm on my own.

The darkness comes so fast
Reminds me of the past
It's hard to sleep alone
How long will this last
I see your face everywhere
It's there, then disappears
Only my imagination
You're nowhere near

Your silk and satin dreams
Clouded out my sanity
Why has the feeling gone
When our love was strong
I've lost my count of time
Can't understand my mind
Love doesn't linger in my life