

Forgive and Forget

Tygers of Pan Tang

Trying to escape the light,
Longing for the night,
But when the darkness falls,
It's so empty and cold,
It brings no relief, it brings no company,
The silence so loud, like a weight pressing down,
I know I deserve this, for all my injustice,
I'm a prisoner, a sufferer,
I will be released, when you come back to me,
I'm on my knees, please

Try to forgive and forget,
All my selfishness,
Try to forgive and forget,
How I treated you,
How I hurt you, I was such a fool

Deserted, so alone,
I regret, what has gone,
If I only changed in time,
You'd be here with me instead of memories,
What I put you through, what did I do to you,
I broke every rule

Try to forgive and forget,
All my selfishness,
Try to forgive and forget,
How I let you down,
How I messed around,
Now I've lost what I found
