

Mr. Indispensable

Tygers of Pan Tang

Who d'ya think ya talking to
Just who d'ya think you are
Some kinda wonderful
That's what you are?

Boy ya got a lotta nerve
Putting it about
Guess you're so invincible
Can't knock you out

Don't you bring your trouble here
They'll push you outta town
Mr. Indispensable
You're going down

It's a sign of the times
And the whole world's gone wrong
It's a sign of the times
When you can't get along
One crooked smile
And the whole world's gone wrong
It's a sign of the times
When you can't get along

Hey you with the attitude
What's your claim to fame
Boy you're unbelievable
You're all the same

Up there on the TV screen
Laying down the rules
Just another
Chain of fools
