

Ready to Run

Tygers of Pan Tang

Cities at night,
Look and sound the same,
Stations full of runaways,
Increase with every train,
They're not looking for trouble,
Just a chance to get somewhere,
Better be a survivor,
Cause you'll find nobody cares

In your silence,
You've already said goodbye

I know, you're getting ready to run,
I know, tomorrow you will be gone,
I know, you're getting ready to run,
Runaway

Another refugee,
That won't be missed,
One of so many,
On the missing list,
Drifting through the back streets,
Lost without a trace,
Looking for a solution,
To the future they can't face
