

Rock & Roll Dream

Tygers of Pan Tang

I need to get away this town a
If only for a day, I need to strut my stuff
The walls are closing in, don't think I'll ever will Reaching for the moon, if I don't get there soon
There's gonna be a fight, might even be tonight
I'm gonna scream and shout, before I knock you out

Run! ... Hide!
I'm still gonna find you
The whole things driving me insane
Got it running through my veins

I live the.. Rock & Roll Dream
Got to live the.. Rock & Roll Dream
Yes I live the.. Rock & Roll Dream
I can't fight it no won't fight it gonna live the..
Rock & Roll Dream

Take all your stupid rules you won't ever make me see
I'm not the usual fool I never will agree
The problem that I've got, is that I want the lot
Move over, step aside, Psycho certified
My anger takes control, lies heavy on my soul
You don't wanna see what this means to me

Spotlight can't pin me down I'm always on the move
Let loose around this town much I could prove
I run before I walk, kick out before I talk
Don't ever question me, cos I don't wanna be
I'm gonna take my chance, I'll make a song a dance
I make to use tonight, I'm gonna shoot on sign
