

Foolish

Tyler James

(Ooohhh uh-ohhh-oh-oh-ohhhh)

Love is a drug and I feel like gettin' high
One last fix with a kiss is worth riskin' suicide
'Cause I'm livin' for the moment, I'm livin' for tonight
I clean forgot she left me paralysed
When I'm touchin' her hand it's a blast from the past
See the strange "deja vu", yeah I know it won't last
She turns me on I can't just go on a fast
Keepin' my mind off her is one mighty task

[Chorus]

Oh
I'm in trouble
(I'm in trouble)
Feels like I'm losing my mind again
(losing my mind)
Now I'm right back where I started
(started)
I've gotta mend this broken heart of mine all over again
I've been foolish (foolish) foolish (foolish)
Foolish with my hands held high (hands held high)
Girl I've wound up where I started
(started)
I'm pleadin' guilty to a crime that my heart just cannot deny

Time is healer how easy we forget
All the misery and pain that one person can inflict Seems I suffer from a case of selective memory
I clean forgot how she walked all over me
No-no-no - can't help myself in the end I'm just a man well you said you want needs for your tender lovin' hands
I'm lyin' when I say there's no strings attached
When I look at her I swear my mind goes blank

[Repeat Chorus]

For one touch
For one kiss
What do I stand to lose
Baby losing my mind is better than losing you
Somebody tell me why do I gotta choose
I'm all excited but keep gettin' the blues

[Repeat Chorus]
