

Call You Quick

Tyler Ward

Call you quick
But you never really catch me
Whos the trick that is sucking down my pride
Youre alone
So baby dont you call me
Ring, ring, ring,
Wasting all my time

Right now, a fire inside her room
She's, deliciously keeping the time with her moves
And, this is something new
And Im a just fooling for you
I like the way that you pay your dues
Youre willingly dropping a bomb on a fool
So, its time for revolution

Our emotions fly like flowers in June
Could it be you?

Call you quick
But you never really catch me
Whos the trick that is sucking down my pride
Youre alone
So baby dont you call me
Ring, ring, ring,
Wasting all my time

She feels comfortably in the mood
And, the devil is throwing a party with you
She, stands a five foot two
And her eyes are blue
Arent you, ready to start the groove
Im falling and loving and Im coming with you
So it's time for my explosion
