

Imprisoned

Tynisha Keli

how do i hide my scars im drowning from the pain i wish i cud escape but theres no way out ur lies are engraved in my heart now ill never be the same && im border line insane

cuz theres no such thing as accepting we're done my brain is unhinged im officially gone im being held without bail my head is my prison cell finally got a taste of emotionally hell

always had a different vision from the sentence i wuz given never thought id be imprisoned y'd u do me like that?
my common sense has left the planet its impossible to grab it if im not freed from this stray jacket tell me y'd u go && do me like that after all the purple hearts im losing this war iv fallen to the floor (i surrender) && im only halfway thru now its me vs myself im overdue for help
