

It's Over

Tynisha Keli

Didn't wanna live without you, I died everyday without you
Over and over I kept playin it back and forth inside my head
The day that we walked without tryin to even work it out so many things I wanna say to you but I'm glad its over now

Thought it'd be possible but somehow I let it go
You held me down for too long
I finally got the weight off of me

Its over, I'm thankful there are no more sleepless nights
Its over, I'm done cryin I'm waving heartache goodbye
And I knew it was bound to happen, but rest assured that ima be
alright
Its over no denyin, no lyin to myself that its over

I coulda spent more time with you but I rather hang, enjoyin games(?)
Chasin dames, that'll never be you, damn man I'm missin my boo
And I don't know if I'm gonna ever be the same, tell me baby...

Thought it'd be possible but somehow I let it go
You held me down for too long
I finally got the weight off of me

Its over, I'm thankful there are no more sleepless nights
Its over, I'm done cryin I'm waving heartache goodbye
And I knew it was bound to happen, but rest assured that ima be
alright
Its over no denyin, no lyin to myself that its over

Don't think you got what it takes to be with someone like me
You cant handle a real woman, I think we're better off bein friends (bein friends?) yes, friends...

Baby, theres gotta be a road that leads me back to your heart
I know its my fault but baby don't you walk away (I'm walkin awayyyy)

Its over, I'm thankful there are no more sleepless nights
Its over, I'm done cryin I'm waving heartache goodbye
And I knew it was bound to happen, but rest assured that I'ma be alright
Its over no denyin, no lyin to myself that its over
