

Livin' A Lie

Tynisha Keli

apparently,
wasnt wat it seemed love is such a lonely place only in my dreams
r u good to me && passionately
u show how much u love me

gotta snap outta denial
accept this as our faith cant wait for loves arrival ill be waiting til the end of days until i realize

im livin such a lie actin like this isnt us (im livin a lie)
the end of our road
the truth is just around the bend
i guess
that we hit a dead end this is it yea we just aint workin
i wont go any further
no no further
if i do ill just b livin a lie

i dont think u understand cuz we've done this song && dance before but honesty is wat i reached && i aint gon walk in the dark no more, no

(im livin a lie)
we just aint workin

let me reintroduce myself to reality i see wats real or fake or fact or just a fantasy ohh im letting go of my fears, its over i wont look bak at all my minds back with its owner
