

Wonder Why

Tynisha Keli

why the pillow is cold on the other side at nite just the other day, i was sittin by the phone waitin for u to call rite then i realized, never deserved for u to use my love && put it on hold never ever thought id ever give u up but iv gotta break the habit boy iv had enough u kno where this went wrong dnt u try to play it off im so gone, only thing i need to kno is why?

i wonder why
you never had my back && u tried so hard to act like u never lied
wen i called u a thousand times
no u aint right
thought now its time
gotta make a sudden change so im jumping in my range maybe u could keep the change u can wonder why
why the pillow is cold on the other side at night mmmm, now that im on my way i cant turn back now on the road to yesterday iv come to far by now, i dnt regret u but im glad i finally found my way another time has passed boy you can see ur mistakes wish it didnt take for u to lose me to change everything is how its suppose to be they say that time heals everything we'll see only thing i need to know is why?

u can wonder why

if u ever need a friend in the future ill do my best to be there i wnt hurt ya just leave tha past where it belongs cuz iv moved on && i forgive u even tho u did me wrong
