

The Edge

Týr

Nightfall in my hall, all I can do is recall as I sit alone in the Darkness, I confess, my part was not any less than whose I was forced to impress

It was a year ago, I left my heart behind to return, with a longing did I burn, I meant to return And now a year has gone and everything has changed for the worse and it's on me like a curse, things changed for the worse

Sentenced to the death by the Thing, four conspirators 'gainst
our king
Led by Son of the Wolf they're just four blood brothers going over the edge

Eggin tykist mér bert ein gátt, sorgin skipar lagnutáttin
Sjálvur yrkti eg niðurlag, frítt er Eystfellið frá at fara
Brátt er vísan rll og tǣgn, hoyrdist tá ið kalda lagnan
Leiddi teir í Runsival, meg bert niðan á hógsta valaknúk

I see no other way than on, what will they say when I am gone
I want my memory to be mild, I want it to glow Upon my pages blood is stained, this way some honour will remain
But I did cause the death of a child both you and I know

And when they came to bleed me dry, I only wonder why did I
On that Easter morn' for the love of my life not vie Let them kill me just the same, I should have lied and played their game
It is a lesser sin than what I have done since that day

It won't go away, nothing I can say save lay down and pray What came from within, what came from without,
I can't be about, myself do I doubt ever since that day

Sentenced to the death by the Thing, four conspirators 'gainst
our king
Led by Son of the Wolf they're just four blood brothers going over
the edge

Eggin tykist mér bert ein gátt, sorgin skipar lagnutáttin
Sjálvur yrkti eg niðurlag, frítt er Eystfellið frá at fara
Brátt er vísan rll og tǣgn, hoyrdist tá ið kalda lagnan

New day, we all pay for our mistakes on our way; lead me up the hillside at

Daybreak, my mistake, don't shed a tear at my wake, just believe it's for my own sake

No turning back now
No tears at my wake, I'll pay for my vow
Just march up the hill till we reach the end Transmigration calls, I long to ascend It's for my own sake
