You Get Yours

Every time I look into your eyes I feel your pain, baby I never thought I had to ever Be without you in my life ,Oh no

I know I was wrong For taking you for granted Oh no I wanna do you a favor By getting out your life I've been doing you wrong So you gotta get on with yours

You get yours And I'll get mine, baby You get yours and I'll get mine

I see you going out your way to call Don't waste your time, baby Obviously you have made the wrong choice Getting with me So you got to let it go, baby

You're too good for me You deserve better Maybe this wasn't meant to be There's no need to work this out You and me You got to let it go babe
