

Arms Around Me

Tyrone Wells

You're driftin' in and out of my dreams,
Am I driftin' in and out of yours?
Why do we come stranded on your shore,
Frozen at your door?
I need your arms around me.
I need your scent on my skin.
And I need to know that you'll never let go,
You'll never let go again.
You'll never let go again.

Searching for your hand at sunset,
I hear you whisper in the wind (come to me).
I'm alone, but you keep haunting me,
Your voice singin' in the sea.
I need your arms around me.
I need your scent on my skin.
And I need to know that you'll never let go,
You'll never let go again.
You'll never let go again.

I need your arms around me.
I need your scent on my skin.
And I need to know that you'll never let go,
You'll never let go again.
You'll never let go again.
