

Give Me One Reason

Tyrone Wells

You're not an angel
And I'm not the perfect man
But you know I love you
So why won't you let me in

Give me one reason to stay and I'll stay
Give me one reason to leave and I'll leave
I don't need you to be me
I'll be just fine being free
I'll be just fine being free

You're like a shadow
That I cannot hold on to
I'm not a prison
I cannot tie you down

Give me one reason to stay and I'll stay
Give me one reason to leave and I'll leave
I don't need you to be me
I'll be just fine being free
I'll be just fine being free

And I'll be alright without you on my side
I'll still sleep at night but don't make me have to

Give me one reason
Give me one reason

Give me one reason to stay and I'll stay
Give me one reason to leave and I'll leave
I don't need you to be me
I'll be just fine being free
