Time will rob you blind - take everything you have to offer Love sweet when it comes - Saves all us beggars, priests and au thors

Oh, how do we let go? When someone we love slips away in the s hadows

It's hard to see you go 'cause you mean everything to me
The seeds that you have sewn will live on deep inside of me
It's time, you're leaving now - Your hands are cold, as I kiss
your brow

And I will try, but I don't know how - to let go. To let go

Years fly without fear - turning a boy into a father

Now he smiles through tears down the aisle,

As he gives away his youngest daughter

Oh how do we let go, when every new step leads us into the unkn own

It's hard to see you go 'cause you mean everything to me
It's time, you're leaving now - Your hands are cold, as I kiss
your brow

And I will try, but I don't know how - to let go

Every new morning all I can do, is hold onto the promise that we all hope is true

That when it's all over - when this life is through I'll wake up in heaven and run to find you

But it's still hard to see you go 'cause you mean everything to me

The seeds that you have sewn will live on deep inside of me It's time, you're leaving now - Your hands are cold, as I kiss your brow

And I will try, but I don't know how - to let go. To let go. To let go.

To let go
