

Demon

Tysondog

No more time to redeem
The change has begun
Don't walk where the beast has been
Just hold your breath, prepare for death
At the hands of the demon

Don't look into his eyes
They'll burn your soul away
You'll cringe at the sound of his lies
The earth will shake, your back will break
With the coming of the mighty demon

Tomorrow will never come
There's only today
You can see him in everyone
The sky turns black as the beast attacks
And you fall to the realm of the demon
