

Smack Attack

Tysondog

You've gone too far
There's no way back
A broken soul alone to die
The darkened veil
Of deaths embrace
Sucks your life blood away

You sought the truth
An innocent dream; but nightmare are all
That you found

You never thought your life would fall
To evil lies and tainted hearts
They stole your will, poisoned your mind
And ripped your world apart
You not the first you won't be the last
Oh why must the young die in vain

Whispered hate, like acid on your breath
Tears like blood run headlong into death

The men you hate
May never pay
For all the suffering and pain
Beneath the gaze of tearful eyes
You only have yourself to blame
You fought too late your innocence shows
The devil takes who survive.
