

Book Of Faith

U.D.O.

There was a time - without belief The world was lost - and not in shape There was a need For a preacher or a priest To fill th eir dreams and hopes

The Promised Land - of milk and honey The day did come - the cu rtain called By blinded light and trumpet call They came and sa w The book of faith

So read your book of faith You will understand So read the book of faith You hold it in your hand So read the book of faith Yo u'll see the glory land So read the book of faith It's not the final end

Now the time has come - if you believe Now the world is in your hand - you got the sign You've paid your price So take your ho ney and leave You see my eyes - it's no surprise Read the book of faith

So read your book of faith Now you will understand So read the book of faith Now you hold it in your hand So read the book of faith Now you'll see the glory land So read the book of faith I t's not the final end

book of faith Now you hold it in your hand So read the book of
t's not the final end
