Born to Run

You're back to win To start again Searching for the power That you've had before The tables turned Mistakes you've made Stop telling lies - no angeleyes Just look straight ahead Don't be afraid to roll the dice Open up your eyes So hit the road and memorize You're not for sale You're born to run So take it from the start You know you're born to run Don't lose your heart Now you're calling the shots So you'd better watch out Don't you understand you can't deny What you have done before But don't you know Your time will come Forget the past - just head out Head out for your aims And in the end you'll see the light Tearing up the night So let it shine and realize You're not for sale You're born to run So take it from the start You know you're born to run Don't waste your time and realize that you're You're born to run Tomorrow's here today 'Cause you're the number one You're leading the way So just believe me You'd better watch out Your time will come Mark my words Think about it I wanna tell ya You're born to run So take it from the start You know you're born to run Don't waste your time and realize that you're You're born to run Tomorrow's here today 'Cause you're the number one Fight the fight - light the light - realize you're born to run
