

Fistful of Anger

U.D.O.

Terror from the tower
Panic in the streets
A gun full of surprises
The special of the week
The wailing of the sirens
Multiple alarms
The screaming of the bullhorns
God bless the right to arm
The finger on the trigger
The target in the sights
And you will remember
Death comes day or night
I got a fistful of anger
A head full of pain
Belt full of bullets
Switchblade insane
My shelter on the rooftop
Up there in the blue
I hear a voice inside me
And who the fuck are you
