Until The End Of The World

Haven't seen you in quite a while I was down the hold, just passing time Last time we met was a low-lit room We were as close together as bride and groom We ate the food, we drank the wine Everybody having a good time Except you You were talking about the end of the world

I took the money, I spiked your drink You miss too much these days if you stop to think You led me on with those innocent eyes You know I love the element of surprise In the garden I was playing the tart I kissed your lips and broke your heart You, you were acting like it was the end of the world

In my dream I was drowning my sorrows But my sorrows they learned to swim Surrounding me, going down on me Spilling over the brim In waves of Regret, waves of joy I reached out to the one I tried to destroy You, you said you'd wait until the end of the world.
