

Just Another Girl

UB40

I know and you know it's true that
This love is really, really true and
I know and you know it's true that
This love is really, really true and

I wanna tell your friends
No other kinda way
There's one thing you should know
You're just another girl

Just another girl, that's what you are
You're just another girl
Bigger eyes but you're not that small
I love you but remember you're just another girl, girl

I know and you know it's true that
This love is really, really true and
I know and you know it's true that
This love is really, really true and

I wanna tell your friends no other kinda way
There's one thing you should know
You're just another girl

Just another girl, that's what you are
You're just another girl
Bigger eyes but you're not that small
I love you but remember you're just another girl, girl

Just another girl, that's what you are
You're just another girl
Bigger eyes but you're not that small
I love you but remember you're just another girl, girl
