

Horizon

Udo Lindenberg

Though the foggy weather with our hats pulled down above our eyes we would lurk together like detectives or a pair of spies two like you and me we could not be beat just like lightening and thunder always on another odyssey

And we were friends forever when we crossed our hearts - a deal was made we didn't know the weather was turning bad, 'til we felt the rain then it hit me hard caught me off my guard
- I was fallin' fast but a love like ours, has gotta last

Refrain:

I know beyond the far horizon there's a brand new day we could be on the far horizon we'll find the way
'cause our bond has ran so deep is a bond we have to keep forever together, wherever we are
